PRESS RELEASE

The Assam Public Service Commission on Thursday, the 30th June, 2016 declared the final results of the Combined Competitive (C.C.) Examination, 2014 and recommended 180 candidates for ACS and Allied Services.

The C.C. Exam. was held in three phases which included Preliminary, Main & Viva-voce. The first stage of the examination was the Preliminary Exam. which was held on 28th Sept 2014. Though a total 52,520 candidates applied for the examination, however 24,722 candidates appeared finally in the said examination across 22 centres all over the State. Subsequently, a total of 2,150 candidates were called for the Main Exam. The result of the Main Examination was declared on 18th June 2016 and 371 candidates (based on the ratio of 1:2 as per the provisions of the APSC (Procedure & Conduct of Business) Rules, 2010) were finally called for the viva-voce interview which was held from 15th June to 22nd June 2016.

As in the past, the women candidates continued to show excellent results, bagging the first four positions of the ACS (Jr) Grade and Ankita Bora belonging to OBC category topped in the said category. Similarly, a woman candidate viz., Wahida Begum secured the first position in the cadre of Superintendent of Taxes. In the same way, Suranjita Hazarika got first position in the cadre of District Transport Officer.

The Commission has introduced a number of innovative measures to expedite the process of selection as well as bringing in more transparency to the system. For the first time, videography system was adopted during the viva-voce interview of the said examination which has increased the transparency of the system.

The APSC conveys sincere thanks and gratitude to all those persons, institutions who were involved in various stages for the smooth conduct of the examination. The APSC looks for similar cooperation from all concerned in future also.
